

LearningPlus

LearningPlus - the digital online learning solution for businesses

LearningPlus is a division of PeoplePlus, the UK's largest adult skills provider. It provides online learning solutions for businesses, individuals and training providers. With over 350 courses to choose from, LearningPlus is able to offer a comprehensive choice of accredited, compliance and personal development courses that can be delivered online at any time or place.

LearningPlus is able to offer such a wide variety of choice as we have aggregated the best in class qualifications and learning from a number of awarding bodies such as CIEH and ROSPA, drawing on our many years of experience in the marketplace. We have already delivered over 90,000 courses in just 5 years!

Compliance is never an issue

We can assure businesses that their workforce will be equipped with the right knowledge and skills to ensure that non-compliance is never an issue. Our experience ensures the courses are up to date with industry standards, engaging, relevant and delivered in a user friendly way. Customers can have access to this fantastic resource at the tap of a button!

“I can't remember the last time I had such an outstanding customer service interaction. All I can say is thank you, and I truly appreciate your words of encouragement for my fledgling business”

Denise Farquhar

Easy to use and excellent value for money

We offer all our customers a tailored and personalised service to ensure that we are offering the best possible user experience. The courses can be done on a variety of devices (including tablet and PC), the system is easy to use, and the courses are competitively priced to ensure excellent value for money.

Learner Management System

As well as a great range of courses, we are also able to offer businesses a Learner Management System (LMS) which enables businesses to manage all of their training records, site procedures, E-learning and external training records in one place.

The LMS also offers:

- A course creation system to enable businesses to build bespoke content
- Customer and staff surveys.
- Instant certification including bespoke certificates for all in house courses.
- Assessment of your employees literacy and numeracy
- Bespoke training plans for each job role in your organisation.
- A platform to record and monitor site procedures and training records
- A comprehensive reporting suite

What Courses Do LearningPlus Offer?

As we offer such a wide selection of courses we are able to offer specialist packages to suit some of the most popular business requirements.

Businesses can choose from a number of courses in each package; the price is dependent on the volume and type of course purchased. More information on each package is available on request.
